The public association "Belarusian Union of Architects" together with the Ministry of Architecture and Construction of the Republic of Belarus is holding the XII National Architecture Festival. The festival will be held from 9 to 11 November 2017. The event is designed to increase the interest of society, including children and young people, in the achievements of modern architecture. This year the festival is dedicated to the 950th anniversary of the city of Minsk.

Within the framework will hold the Minsk International Biennale of Young Architects "LEONARDO-2017."

The Biennale is held under the auspices and with the support of the Ministry of Architecture and Construction of Belarus, the Ministry of Culture of the Republic of Belarus, the Minsk City Executive Committee, International Union of Architects (UIA) and International Association of Unions of Architects (IAUA).

The Biennale is held in the framework of the XII National Festival of Architecture in order to familiarize the public and foreign colleagues with the works of young architects in the last three years; to identify the best works and authors; to identify promising directions of development of architecture; to popularize creative achievements of young architects.

Minsk has already become a traditional meeting place for young talented architects from around the world: Belarus, Russia, Ukraine, Kyrgyzstan, Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan, Moldova, Uzbekistan, Armenia, Tajikistan, Georgia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Macedonia, Hungary, Slovakia, Finland, Austria, Slovenia, Germany, Holland, Czech Republic, Israel, Turkey, Serbia, Spain, Greece, China, etc.

We invite you to participate.
